ORDER:

In the G.Os 1st, 2nd and 3rd read above, certain powers of the Registrar of Cooperative Societies under Andhra Pradesh Cooperative Societies Act, 1964 on District Cooperative Marketing Societies were delegated to the District Collectors and District Cooperative Officers, where the head quarters of District Cooperative Marketing Societies are situated.

2. In the G.O. 4th and Gazette Notifications issued in the read above, the erstwhile 13 Districts of Andhra Pradesh were reorganized into 26 Districts specifying the area of the new Districts consisting of Revenue Divisions/ Mandals.

3. In the letter 6th read above, the Commissioner for Cooperation and Registrar of Cooperative Societies, Andhra Pradesh, Guntur has stated that the 13 District Cooperative Marketing Societies are yet to be re-organized. Due to re-organization and formation of new Districts, the area of operation of each District Cooperative Marketing Societies has been geographically distributed in more than one District. In the current scenario exercising of Statutory Powers of the Registrar delegated to the respective District Collectors and District Cooperative Officers, where the Head Quarters of the District Cooperative Marketing Societies are situated will be practically difficult as each District Cooperative Marketing Societies is coming under the jurisdiction of 2 or more District Collectors and District Cooperative Officers.

4. In view of the above circumstances, the Government after careful examination of the matter, here by order that the District Collectors and District Cooperative Officers of reorganized Districts shall exercise the powers regarding the District Cooperative Marketing Societies concerned based on the area of occurrence (confine to the Geographical areas of operation). These orders will be effective until DCCMS are reorganized conterminous of the Organized Districts.

5. The Commissioner for Cooperation and Registrar of Cooperative Societies, Andhra Pradesh, Guntur shall take necessary action accordingly.
